THE DOMINICAN CAMPUS

Our campus is located in San Rafael, California, which is a small city of 57,700. San Rafael is filled with parks, shopping, restaurants, museums and historic sites, an amazing farmer's market, and a civic center designed by famed architect Frank Lloyd Wright. This lively California town offers seasonal concerts, art walks, a film fest, and plenty of other events throughout the year. We're also close to some of the most exciting, historic, and beautiful places in the Golden State, from hiking in ancient redwoods, to exploring the wine country, to watching big wave surfers at Ocean Beach.

12 miles north of the Golden Gate Bridge — Cross into San Francisco to enjoy its attractions and eateries, and neighborhoods and nightlife — from Golden Gate Park, to Haight St. to China Town and more.

25 minutes to Berkeley — Take a walk along historic Telegraph Ave. and find cheap eats, funky shops and best locally-owned bookstores.

28 minutes to Muir Woods National Monument — Enter this giant Redwood forest and get lost in nature.

40 minutes to Point Reyes National Seashore — Explore the rocky coast, sandy beaches, and open meadows.
